A most elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by square foliate feet below charming block rosettes and beautiful acorn finials flanked by fine foliate movements. A detailed berried laurel band extends around the base below the fluted socle pedestal with a lovely spiral design. The body displays a most decorative and richly chased wrap around band with exceptional foliate rinceaux designs and acanthus leaves. Striking scrolled arms extend up each side with superb scrolled acanthus leaves and charming detailed cherub faces below. Above, is the urn's mottled rim and finished interior. All original gilt throughout.
