A stunning and most unique French 19th Century Louis XVI st. ormolu double framed mirror. The original beveled central mirror plate is framed within a beautiful and finely chased cabochon and foliate band. The outer original beveled mirror plates are also framed within a similar border with finely detailed foliate corner mounts. The elaborate pierced top crown is centered by an exceptional mask of a female maiden set on a satin family crest. To each side are exceptional and most decorative rinceau shaped scrolled foliate patterns.
