A handsome and impressive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu floor lamp. The lamp is raised by a tripod base with three 'S' scrolled acanthus leaf supports ending with a hoof. The bottom of the supported pedestal has a richly chased Vitruvian scrolled design below an egg and dart band. Above is the fluted pedestal decorated by a berried laurel garland and a Coeur de Rai base. The spiral fluted fut leads up to a reeded stem below an elegant swaging beaded garland and acanthus leaves. Beautifully proportioned.
