A very elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu, Mahogany and marble table. The oval side table is raised on four 'C' scrolled Ormolu legs ending with hoof feet. The four legs are joined by an 'X' stretcher with beaded edges and a central foliate rosette. Above are the tapered Mahogany legs which are elegantly decorated by a spiral foliate design leading to the apron of the table. The apron with a recessed band has an intertwined foliate design which surrounds the fitted marble top.
