An elegant and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu, Mirror and Crystal centerpiece. This attractive scallop shaped centerpiece is presented on a beautiful beveled mirrored plateau. The plateau is framed within a finely detailed Ormolu frame displaying berried laurel designs, a beaded band, and a reeded patterned band with crossing ribbons at each reserve. The Crystal centerpiece matching the shape of the plateau is mounted with an Ormolu frame showcasing a bottom section similar to the plateau with its beaded laurel designs and beaded band. The body of the centerpiece is tastefully decorated with swaging floral garlands that flank the central crest on both sides. The charming garlands gently hang below a reeded band with crossing ribbons.
