A beautiful and most unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze and Baccarat crystal centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by elegant scrolled supports and handsome paw feet. Above are striking seashell designed ormolu bowls with a most decorative reeded and fluted design and handsome masks. At the center are elegant and richly chased floral movements set on a hammered background that lead up to the triangular central support decorated in the same manner. Above the reeded circular Baccarat crystal dish is a charming and finely detailed maiden draped in a flowing garment holding beautiful ormolu flowers in one hand and standing on a spiral flower bud. All displaying a stunning satin and burnished finish. With all original gilt and patina throughout.
