A sensational French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze and Vert Antique marble center table. The table is raised by its original casters below elegant spiral tapered fluted feet. Each leg displays most impressive and richly chased patinated bronze bearded men draped in finely executed ormolu flowing fabric. They seem to be holding up superb ormolu capitals. The legs are connected by an outstanding stretcher with a geometric design, a beaded border and lovely central floral rosette. The striking straight apron displays a stunning and most decorative pierced patinated bronze Greek Key design, with fine ormolu balls and framed within a mottled ormolu border. Above is the original Vert Antique fitted marble top within a beautiful twisted rope designed ormolu border with foliate cabochons.
