An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, silvered bronze and crystal chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a fine bottom foliate ormolu finial with beautiful beaded crystal garlands encasing the central lighting cluster. At the rim are striking finely detailed foliate mounts and berried laurel wreaths in a rich satin and burnished finish. A lovely intertwining laurel band extends around the chandelier with delicate floral rosettes. Above the fluted central support is an exceptional ormolu ball adorned with richly chased swaging floral garlands and tied with charming ribbons. The pierced top crown displays beautiful foliate movements and lovely flowers.
