A most elegant small scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, silvered bronze, beaded glass and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a fine cut crystal ball amidst beautiful prism shaped crystal pendants. Lovely beaded glass garlands lead up the lovely rim which is decorated with an interlocking wrap around foliate band set on a silvered bronze background. Richly chased swaging floral garlands extend around the chandelier and tied with charming bows. Three fine chains lead up to the original fluted ormolu canopy above.
