A finely detailed and most unique French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu, Tole, Gilt and Porcelain Bouillotte lamp. This attractive three arm Bouillotte lamp is centered by a round tapered Ormolu base that displays crossing pierced patterns and surrounds the socle which supports the central fut. The socle contains mottled, reeded, foliate, and beaded patterned bands while displaying a tree trunk above that introduces the three arms. Each 'S' scrolled arms are adorned with wonderfully detailed and colorful Porcelain flowers along with Tole metal leaves all connected by wandering vines. The bobèche and candle cup of each arm is decorated with Gilt Tole leaves. The light colored fabric shade which is adjustable in height and secured by a beautiful Ormolu fletching as well as topped with a removable Ormolu foliate designed top finial, is encased by an Iron cage decorated by Gilded bands which are accented by additional Tole leaves and colorful Porcelain flowers.
