A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. oval double framed giltwood mirror. The original beveled mirror plate is framed within a fine beaded border. The four arched shaped original beveled mirror plates are separated by a charming and richly carved floral reserve and fine protruding foliate scrolled movements. At the border is a Les Oves pattern with an impressive pierced foliate top crown which displays rich scrolls centering a beautiful seashell reserve in a fine satin and burnished finish. At the base is a similarly impressive and richly carved pierced reserve. All original gilt throughout.
