A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Patinated and Giltwood Trumeau mirror. The mirror displays a substantial patinated olive green frame with the central mirror plate being surrounded by a mottled and beaded border. Two vertical column like panels displaying charming urns with foliage at the bottom and intertwined garlands at the top, flank the mirror plate and lead up to the wonderful Trumeau top. The Trumeau showcases an exceptionally detailed reserve of a fanciful urn displaying wonderful carvings of two lovebirds with a lyre, the eternal flame, and a quiver full of arrows amidst exquisite giltwood foliate patterns, all framed within a demi lune shaped mottled giltwood band. The top crown is accented with an elegant giltwood band above two corner mounts displaying rosettes. All original gilt, mirror plate and patination throughout.
