An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated buffet. The four door three drawer buffet is raised by six circular tapered fluted legs below the straight fluted frieze. Each drawer displays a most decorative mottled recessed design with fine circular reserves and charming tied ribbon keyhole escutcheon each separated by fluted columns and which open to reveal one shelf. The three drawers also display an elegant mottled design with circular mottled bronze pulls while above is the lovely patinated off white top with a fine mottled border. All original patina throughout.
