A beautiful French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated commode. The three drawer chest is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs below the fine fluted straight frieze. Each of the three drawers displays most decorative mottled recessed designs with their original bronze pulls and central keyhole escutcheons framed within circular reserves. The sides display an elegant recessed panel framed within a mottled border while the top retains its original wonderfully executed faux painted marble top. All original patina throughout.
