A beautiful and very high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood and Brèche Violette marble console. The rectangular freestanding console is raised by elegant foliate topie shaped feet below fine block rosettes connected by a striking scalloped stretcher with lovely most decorative interlocking patterns leading to the striking central urn flanked by intricately detailed swaging blooming flower garlands. The front legs displays a most decorative scrolled design with beautiful acanthus leaf carvings and charming richly carved swaging floral garlands while the straight back legs display a lovely fluted design with fine carved foliate chandelles. Above the front legs are striking block rosettes flanking the straight frieze decorated with rinceaux scrolled foliate designs leading to the impressive richly carved pierced acanthus leaf reserve with superb intricately detailed swaging blooming floral garlands tied with ribbons. Above is the original Brèche Violette marble top with a fine mottled border. All original patina throughout.
