A most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood buffet. The four door four drawer buffet is raised by a fine mottled base with beautiful fluted columns leading upwards flanking the doors. The doors each display lovely recessed and mottled designs with richly carved tied swaging berried laurel garlands connected to charming rosettes and their original foliate ribbon keyhole escutcheons opening to reveal one shelf and with the outer doors displaying a curved design. The four drawers each display remarkable fluted patterns also retaining their original charming iron pulls framed within a mottled wrap around band and separated by fluted block reserves. Above is the stunning most decorative patinated top with a lovely double mottled border. All original patina throughout.
