A splendid and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood buffet. The three door three drawer buffet is raised by a straight base with two block reserves at the center and a cut block reserve at each side below striking fluted columns leading upwards. The columns flank the doors each decorated with a superb recessed mottled design and retaining their original bronze keyhole escutcheon and which opens to reveal one shelf. The three drawers also display most decorative recessed mottled designs and retain their original bronze pulls with each side decorated in the same manner with an elegant recessed panel. Above is the original wonderfully executed faux painted marble top with a fine mottled border and cut corners. All original patina throughout.
