A most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. polychrome and Arabescato marble side table/pedestal. The table is raised by three elegant square legs with handsome hoof feet, lovely interlocking reserves, and recessed designs adorned with impressive richly carved tied swaging berried laurel garlands and connected by a charming finely detailed bottom floral wreath. Above is the original Arabescato marble top with a fine mottled border and fitted within a beautiful twisted foliate ribbon wrap around band. All original patina throughout.
