An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Porcelain de Paris centerpiece.

The oval shaped centerpiece is raised by four pawed supports below a mottled frieze with various colorful flowers and roses. Above is a lattice designed socle with original gilt accents and additional painted flowers at the above concave band. The oval tapered urn has a bottom gadroon gilt design below an additional pierced lattice design with gilt accents. The top rim has very decorative and richly detailed bouquets of various flowers all on a white background. The edge of the rim has a fine gilt band.
