A sensational and large scale French 19th century Louis XVI st. Rouge Griotte and ormolu vase. Raised by a striking ormolu base with square mottled feet below rich scrolls and a central richly chased female mask, repeated at the back. The sleek marble central support is decorated by an ormolu berried laurel band and foliate movements leading up. The marble body displays a charming ormolu winged cherub at each side, seated on a handsome and richly chased lion head, in a satin and burnished finish. The lions are joined by swaging floral garlands attached at the center by an exceptional tied ribbon. The top border displays a Les Oves pattern, with the original removable fitted insert. All original gilt throughout.
