A beautiful and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain and ormolu lamp. The lamp is raised by an elegant stepped square ormolu base with charming etched foliate designs and fine wrap around beaded and reeded bands. Above the fluted socle shaped pedestal support is the elegant colorful Sèvres porcelain body encased with pierced foliate ormolu designs at the base and displaying beautiful gold foliate accents and a central reserve of charming hand painted birds. At each side are striking richly chased rams heads in a superb satin and burnished finish each connected by a lovely intertwined foliate band below the elegantly curved neck.
