A handsome French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. mantel clock, signed Jean, A Rennes. The clock is raised by ormolu topie shaped feet below a rectangular white Carrara marble base with finely chased reeded bands an ormolu running wave design, accented by beaded borders on each side. Above is a patinated bronze maiden reading a book. On the side is the enamel dial encased in ormolu with chased acanthus leaves and reeded columns on each side, with a foliate top crown. Exquisitely chased and original gilt throughout.
