A most elegant and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze and black Belgian marble Guéridon side table. The table is raised by handsome finely detailed hoof feet with large acanthus leaves and three beautifully scrolled tapered legs with richly chased rams heads leading upwards. The legs are each connected by a fine pierced bottom triangular stretcher with concave sides and a central floral rosette. At the center is the original black Belgian marble top fitted within a fine reeded and mottled wrap around silvered bronze band. The circular top also retains its original black Belgian marble decorated in the same manner and fitted within a mottled and beaded wrap around ormolu gallery with exceptional richly chased rams heads above each leg.
