A remarkable and most decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. Terra Cotta urn/planter. The urn signed Tuilerie de Choisy-Le-Roi is raised by a square base below a fine double mottled circular and elegantly curved socle shaped pedestal support. The body displays a beautiful reeded design with impressive intricately detailed rams heads at each side. Above the curved neck and at the rim is a charming and finely detailed foliate band. All original warm patina throughout.
