A high quality and finely decorated French 19th century Louis XVI st. Tole and Ormolu Bouillotte lamp. This exquisite three arm two light lamp is supported by a circular pierced base with wrap around spiraling designs. In the center of the circular base is the central fut which has a socle shaped base with fluted and reeded designs. At the top of the fut are the three 'C' scrolled arms with ram's heads, acanthus leaves, and spiraling designs leading to berried foliate decorated candle cups. Above is the charming Tole shade accented with gilt, which can be lowered and raised via the arrow shaped adjustment. At the top of the lamp is an elegant topie shaped foliate Ormolu final.
