A charming and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Tulipwood, ormolu and Brèche marbre coffee table. The oblong shaped table is raised by lightly curved legs with fine mottled borders, striking ormolu palmette paw feet, and charming pierced corner mounts with cherubs and swaging berried laurel garlands. A lovely ormolu band extends along the apron which displays most decorative butterfly veneered panels showcasing the warm wood grain. Above is the original Brèche marbre top fitted within a Tulipwood border with a mottled and fluted wrap around ormolu gallery. All original gilt throughout.
