A very attractive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Tulipwood, Kingwood and gray marble buffet. The two drawer two door buffet is raised on a straight base with cut corners below the doors that open to reveal one adjustable shelf. Each door is decorated with a quarter veneered panel, an elegant Kingwood border, and Maple wood trim accented with a richly chased Ormolu rosette at each corner. Each door is flanked by a faux fluted vertical Tulipwood inlay. At the straight frieze are two quarter veneered drawers each with elegant berried laurel Ormolu pulls. Above is the original thick gray marble top with cut corners.
