A lovely and most elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. Tulipwood, Ormolu and Breche Rouge marble side table. This wonderful oval side table is raised by four tapered fluted legs while being supported on Ormolu ball sabots accented by acanthus leaves. Above the Ormolu top cap of each leg is an Ormolu badge of a berried rosette which flanks each panel above the straight apron containing reeded Ormolu bands. Each panel showcases wonderful Tulipwood veneers with scrolling berried foliate Ormolu mounts. The oval Breche Rouge marble top is fitting within a decorative reeded Ormolu gallery.
