A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Tulipwood, Walnut, Ormolu and white Carrara marble console. The demi lune shaped console is raised on four square tapered legs with Ormolu sabots extending up to a single display tier decorated with a lovely marquetry of roses and tulips. At the top of each leg is a mottled Ormolu band below the apron displaying a central drawer with an Ormolu keyhole escutcheon over an intricate marquetry of floral swaging garlands. The drawer is flanked by curved marquetry inlaid panels with additional floral swaging garlands below the original white Carrara marble fitted within an elegant raised and pierced Ormolu gallery on three sides.
