An impressive and uniquely shaped French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble and Ormolu lidded urn. The oblong urn is raised on an oval mottled pedestal base with an Ormolu twisted ribbon band below the fabulously reeded and mottled body. At the rim is a richly chased Ormolu band centered by a fine rosette amidst mirrored Vitruvian scrolls in a stunning satin and burnished finish. The urn is beautifully decorated by two richly chased Satyr masks as handles. The removable lid displays the same reeded pattern and has a top Ormolu acorn finial. All original gilt throughout.
