A stunning and extremely high quality French 19th century Napoleon III period ebony, exotic wood, ormolu, brass and white Carrara marble cabinet. The cabinet is raised by handsome block feet with a fine foliate band and detailed rectangular ormolu rosettes. The frieze is centered by a beautiful pierced foliate ormolu mount set on an ebony background inlaid with most decorative brass fillets. Above a richly detailed foliate band, is the central door with sensational and intricately detailed floral marquetry. The marquetry is framed within an intricately detailed oval foliate ormolu band with richly chased floral keyhole escutcheon. The door opens to reveal two adjustable shelves and is flanked by two panels with outstanding parquetry À la Reine pattern. The left corner of the cabinet displays a finely detailed ormolu mount of a male with grapes and grape leaves in his hair while the right corner displays a beautiful maiden. Above a beautiful top central floral marquetry panel and egg and dart designed ormolu band, is the original white Carrara marble top with cut corners and a fine mottled border.
