A stunning and high quality French 19th century Napoleon III Period Louis XVI st. Tulipwood, Kingwood, Sèvres Porcelain and Ormolu Jardinière planter. This impressive three section jardiniere/planter rests on its wonderful Tulipwood base. The planter showcases a wonderful bombee shape with a protruding front and rounded sides. The middle section contains a panel with butterfly veneers and a central reserve of a colorful oval Sèvres Porcelain plaque of flowers mounted with a foliate decorated Ormolu frame. The panel is edged with a Coeur-de-Rain band and a Kingwood border. Both side panels are decorated similarly to the central panel. The top rim of this gorgeous planter is edged with an egg and dart Ormolu band as well as twisted metal band above. The interior contains the original fitted metal inserts with round handles on either side.

Shown with mirror item# 12905, sold separately.
