An elegant French 19th century Napoleon III period ormolu mirrored tray. The scalloped tray is raised by beautiful pierced scrolled foliate feet with lovely etched acanthus leaves with fine beaded accents below a lovely wrap around cabochon and foliate band. The most decorative scalloped top displays beautiful delicate handles at each side and intricately detailed etched scrolled foliate designs in a striking satin and burnished finish adorned with delicate beaded bands at the borders framing the original central mirror plate. All original gilt throughout.
