A handsome French 19th century Neo-Classical burl walnut and ormolu center table. The table is raised by a triangular burl walnut bottom tier with concave sides and three impressive supports with paw feet and striking lion heads with open wings in a faux painted patinated bronze finish. The burl walnut frieze is trimmed with a decorative ormolu band and three richly chased ormolu rosettes. The frieze also has one central drawer with a circular ormolu pull. Above is the original Vert Antique marble top. With all original patina throughout.
