An elegant and high quality French 19th century Neo-Classical st. faux painted marble, green marble, and Ormolu centerpiece. This finely detailed centerpiece is raised by a mottled edged triangular Ormolu base with concave sides and supported on a faux marble base plate. Atop the Ormolu base are the Three Graces elegantly dressed in flowing garments with their hair tied back while surrounding the green marble central fut supporting the bowl above. Helping support the top is a circular mottled edged Ormolu mount. Above is the stunning green marble bowl displaying a palmette spray with a curved rim. Inside the bowl is a centrally placed sunflower pendant which secures the bowl to the fut.
