A unique and extremely elegant French 19th century Neo-Classical st. mahogany and ebonized fruitwood console. The beautiful demi-lune shaped free standing console is raised by a most decorative scalloped shaped bottom tier with a concave front, sides, a stunning sunburst veneer, and the original mirror backplate. Four striking architectural supports lead upwards with finely detailed ormolu mottled top and bottom caps. Above each support are beautiful richly chased pierced ormolu mounts of winged maidens holding trumpets and cornucopias, all in rich satin and burnished finishes. Above is the original ebonized fruitwood top.
