A handsome French 19th century Neo-Classical st. Mahogany, Ormolu and Levanto Rouge marble side table. This wonderful table is raised on three C scrolled legs with carvings of a bird like figures above and talon shaped feet decorated with large acanthus leaves. The legs are joined by a quarter veneered stretcher with concave sides. The mottled frieze above is decorated by three finely chased lion shaped Ormolu pulls and three Mahogany capitals adorned with Ormolu mounts of mirrored fish flanking a trident. Above lays the impressive Levanto Rouge marble with an indented edge. All original rich and warm patina and gilt.
