An exceptional French 19th century Neo-Grec st. ormolu and porcelain lamp.

The lamp is raised by striking and richly chased palmette designed feet.

Above, is the mottled socle pedestal with a fluted design and Vitruvian scrolls. The most decorative porcelain body displays a lovely geometric wrap around band. To each side are wonderfully executed Greek personages holding trays with urns. The superb scrolled ormolu handles display finely chased oak leaves and most elegant scrolled movements.
