A French 19th century patinated Bronze and black Belgian marble statue signed by Schoenewerk and Marchand. The statue is raised on an oval Black Belgian marble base with double mottled edge top. Above is a young maiden wearing a classical dress having one knee to the ground picking flowers with her draped in a way to be able to collect the flowers. The young maiden has her hair tied back in a bun and wearing a lovely band of flowers. Besides her is a weaved basket full of flowers. Wonderful and crisp detail with a beautiful original and warm patina throughout.

Signed by the artist Pierre-Alexandre Schoenewerk (1820-1885) and cast by Léon Marchand (1831-1899).
