A striking French 19th century patinated bronze bust of Napoleon, after a model by Antonio Canova. The bust is raised by a square base where the inscription CANOVA is displayed at the back. Above is the handsome wonderfully executed Napoleon with richly chased details throughout. Antonio Canova (Nov. 1757 - Oct. 1822) was known for his marble sculptures. Often regarded as the greatest of the Neo-Classical artists. His works were inspired by the Baroque and classical revival.
