An elegant and high quality French 19th century Regence st. Giltwood mirror. This large and highly detailed double framed mirror showcases a symmetrically designed base with scrolled carvings and acanthus leaves with a central reserve flanked by pierced mirror backed legs. Extending vertically on both sides of the central mirror plate are mirror backed columns with "C" scrolled acanthus leaves at the top. The magnificent arched top crown displays an array of scrolled designs that flow elegantly with laurel and floral carvings. Above the top crown is a centrally placed "C" scrolled spray backed by acanthus leaf carvings. All original mirror plates throughout
