An impressive French 19th century Renaissance st. Belle Époque period ormolu centerpiece/urn. The urn is raised by a most decorative base with fine block rosette feet below large richly chased scrolled acanthus leaves centering a striking maiden's mask and an intricately detailed swaging floral garlands. The striking urn above displays handsome richly chased roaring lion's head set on a clover lattice designed background and flanked by additional swaging floral garlands. At each side are beautiful graceful maidens in elegant dentil dresses with large scrolled acanthus leaves. A most decorative reeded and pieced palmette designed band extends along the rim. Also finished on the inside and centered by a fine ormolu rosette.
