A beautiful and extremely decorative French 19th century Renaissance st. Pâte sur Pâte celadon colored porcelain and ormolu lamp. The lamp is raised by a beautiful finely detailed circular ormolu base with mottled block feet at the front and back and most decorative foliate feet at each side amidst lovely laurel bands set on a hammered background. The celadon colored porcelain body displays a graceful baluster shape with striking finely detailed Pâte Sur Pâte floral designs at the center. Charming scrolled foliate ormolu handles lead up each side with finely detailed maiden faces and fine palmette designs. All original gilt throughout.
