An outstanding French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze and ormolu chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by an elegant bottom foliate finial below mottled reeded designs. The arms each display fine patinated bronze curved designs adorned with large richly chased acanthus leaves leading to straight fluted designs with fine rosettes and fleur de lys designs and fluted candle cups. At the center is the striking circular mottled support with fine reeded and foliate designs below the striking tapered spiral fluted patinated bronze central fut encased with mask of beautiful maidens below the curved foliate ormolu top crown.
