An outstanding French 19th century Renaissance st. Rouge Royale marble and Baccarat crystal centerpiece vase. The vase is raised by a rectangular Rouge Royale base with convex sides, a stepped ormolu design and fine pierced scrolled movements. The very impressive supports display handsome paw feet and rich scrolled movements centering a family crest. Leading up are two wonderfully detailed roaring winged lions with finely etched designs in a striking satin and burnished finish. The stunning reeded and diamond cut Baccarat crystal vase displays a most decorative and elegant balloon shape. All original gilt.
