A high quality and very unique French early 19th century William IV Period patinated bronze and ormolu center table. This stunning circular table is raised on a patinated bronze base and feet, the three legs ending with paws on the original casters. Accented with finely chased ormolu large acanthus leaves. The fluted patinated bronze socle is accented with large ormolu foliate. The ebony frieze is decorated with giltwood borders and stars. All below the original Brèche d'Alep marble top.
