A beautiful and most decorative French early 18th century Provincial Régence period giltwood mirror. The mirror retains its original mirror plate set within a most decorative mottled giltwood frame with striking Greek key designs at each corner and fine tapered acanthus leaf feet. Charming richly carved intertwined vines seemingly growing up the framed with finely detailed grape leaves and grape clusters leading to the top crown. The striking pierced top crown displays a central urn framed within a unique mottled border with lovely blooming flowers. All original gilt throughout.
