A striking and unique French early 18th century Renaissance st. Wrought Iron lutrin/music stand. The two piece lectern is raised by a handsome tripod base with large scrolled feet leading up a slender twisted central support. The double sided and rotatable music stand is decorated with hand forged Wrought Iron foliate patterns centered by a captivating Fleur de Lys, the symbol of French Royalty. At each side is an adjustable arm and candle holder. All original patina throughout.

Perfect to be placed in the center of a room to be enjoyed by all angles.
