A charming French early 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and rock crystal chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by a beautiful solid rock crystal ball amidst a lovely array of cut crystal pendants. Each of the elegantly scrolled arms are adorned with fine beads and additional crystals leading to fine beaded bobeches and candle cups. The stunning rock crystal central fut displays a striking and most decorative spray with tear drop shaped pendants leading up to the exceptional top crown adorned with additional rock crystal pendants. All original gilt throughout.
