A stunning and large scale French early 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and giltwood planter. The oval planter is raised by a fine mottled giltwood band below an exceptional luxuriant array of richly carved scrolled foliate designs and lovely leaves fitted within fluted patterns. The front, back, and sides display lovely swaging berried laurel garlands with seashells below elegantly curved elements and superb finely detailed large acanthus leaves. The body displays a beautiful basket design with a wonderfully executed woven fluted lattice pattern with charming rosettes and a mottled wrap around border at the top. Inside is the original fitted insert. All original gilt and patina throughout.
